Republicans For Wilson.

Believing that we ought to let well enough alone, and that nothing could be gained by electing Mr. Hughes, and that much might be lost by not re-electing Mr. Wilson, many Republicans throughout the United States have arisen above party lines and declared themselves for Wilson. The unqualified indorsement of President Wilson by the following Republicans serve to show the drift of Republican sentiment to Mr. Wilson, and that he is not being looked upon as a partisan, but as an American citizen, viewing public questions from the standpoint of peace and humanity. The following life long Republicans are for Mr. Wilson:

Harry A. Garfield, son of a Republican President; Thomas A. Edison, the great inventor; Henry Ford, manufacturer of Ford Automobiles and mentioned for President at the National Republican Convention last summer; Luther Burbank, that great scientist of California; Supreme Court Judge of New York, John P. Frank; former Republican Governor of Wyoming, J. M. Carey; former Republican United Senator of North Dakota, Henry Clay Hansbrough; Professor Thos. C. Smith of Williams College, Professor Lewis J. Johnson, of Harvard; Charles S. Gibbons, of Kansas, former chairman of a Republican committee; W. J. Dawson, Republican elector of West Virginia; Judge L. A. Laughlin, of Kansas City; Senator Thomas J. Grose, of Minneapolis; Judge Albert D. Norton, of St. Louis; Chauncey I. Filley, of St. Louis; and thousands of other Republicans.

Not only are thousands of Republicans supporting Mr. Wilson, but the greatest Republican statesmen of the times have spoken words of high praise for him, among them Vice-President Fairbanks, United States Senator La Follette, and Senator Elihu Root, of New York. Mr. Root is said to be the greatest living Republican statesman. The following are the words of Mr. Root regarding our President.

"Thank heaven we have a President in whose lofty character, in whose sincerity of purpose, in whose genuine desire to do what is right, wise, patriotic, and what is best for the country and humanity, we can all trust absolutely. I trust him. He is MY President and I would stand behind him in his leadership." From a speech by Elihu Root, delivered before the American Society of International Law, Washington, April 29, 1914.

A Tribute to Wilson.

At a meeting of railroad men held in Chaffee last week, Paul Mattingly of that city, a life-long Republican, read the following poem, which he composed, to his fellow-workers:

Vote for Woodrow Wilson.
Whom we know is always fair;
He passed an eight-hour work day law
And did it on the square.

He has been with us through thick and thin
We know for the past four years:
And we feel that we should elect him again
And save our nation tears.

With a wise and noble head,
And many of us are living today
Who otherwise might have been dead.

Remember, men, it is up to us
To keep old Hughes out of the fuss:
For all he can do is to knock and holler
He is in the race for the almighty dollar.

They have the money—we know that is true;
But if they declare war they will call on you.
They value their money above human lives,
But men, remember your mothers and wives.

They say Hughes is backed by the Wall street brokers,
And we sometimes find such men to be jokers;
They don't get out of their automobile
And put their shoulders to the wheel.
They handle the money and keep up the fuss;
If they have any fighting, they call on us.
So don't be alarmed at Hughes' knocks,
And remember your FRIEND at the ballot box.

Arthur Thrower of Caruthersville informed the Herald man that he had made arrangements for a leased wire to run in the Dixie Theatre, and that he would throw the election returns on the screen. This is quite a new fad, but of course, Arthur is always going the limit in good things for his patrons.

The High School girls added the second victory to their list last Wednesday when they defeated the Portageville team on the latter's court by the decisive score of 25 to 7. This year's team looks like a winner.

The school is now the possessor of a victrola. We have a desk or table machine for use while the regular school victrola is coming. The machine will be paid for by the efforts of the school children and we feel certain that it will not take long to get a clear title to the instrument.

students had planned the party and had decorated the building appropriately. Every one was to come masked, and two boxes of candy had been offered for the most completely disguised girl and boy. Ghosts, clowns, old men and women, and little boys and girls were present, each one trying to act as much like some one else as possible.

After an hour's amusement at each other's expense the prizes were awarded to Ethel Hamilton and Harold Prehn. Then, of course, each one learned his fortune from a gypsy in a tent and all are dreaming now of some great happiness in store for them.

Refreshments, consisting of wieners, pickles and bread, were served, and then the Halloween ghosts adjourned for another year.
